

Second Amendment

OPENING FRAME → START HERE

The right to keep and bear arms is the right to defend innocent life — against criminals today and tyranny tomorrow.

DEBATE PATH

- 1 Self-defense: Scripture treats defending family and home as legitimate (Ex 22; Luke 22:36).
↓
- 2 Constitution: “The right of the people... shall not be infringed” — Heller affirms an individual right.
↓
- 3 Practical: Defensive gun uses vastly outnumber criminal uses; police can’t be everywhere.
↓
- 4 History: Major 20th-century democides followed citizen disarmament.
↓
- 5 Logic: Criminals ignore gun laws. Control disarms the law-abiding first.

COUNTERS

THEY SAY
“Turn the other cheek”

YOU SAY
Jesus addressed personal insult, not abandoning the innocent to violence.

THEY SAY
“Only the military needs guns”

YOU SAY
The Founders wrote the 2A to secure the people’s right — not a government monopoly on force.

THEY SAY
“Other countries have fewer shootings”

YOU SAY
Culture, family breakdown, and mental health drive violence. High-ownership Switzerland/Israel aren’t US-style chaos.

THEY SAY
“We just want common-sense laws”

YOU SAY
Define them. Many “common sense” proposals fail criminals while burdening the innocent. Target crime, not rights.
