

Marriage: One Man & One Woman

OPENING FRAME → START HERE

Marriage is not a private lifestyle label — it is a pre-political institution oriented to man, woman, and children.

DEBATE PATH

- 1 Creation: Male and female; “one flesh” — affirmed by Jesus (Gen 1–2; Matt 19).
↓
- 2 Natural law: Bodies are complementary; only male–female union is procreative by nature.
↓
- 3 Children: Kids do best with a mother and a father; fatherlessness is a social crisis.
↓
- 4 Liberty: Redefinition has coerced bakers, florists, and adoption agencies.
↓
- 5 Meaning: If marriage means anything, it cannot mean everything.

COUNTERS

THEY SAY
“Jesus never mentioned homosexuality”

YOU SAY
He reaffirmed Genesis male–female marriage (Matt 19 / Mark 10). That settles the design.

THEY SAY
“Love is love”

YOU SAY
Love is necessary, not sufficient. The institution exists for a purpose beyond adult feelings.

THEY SAY
“Same-sex couples can be good parents”

YOU SAY
Individual cases ≠ the normative ideal. Policy should favor what is best for children as a class.

THEY SAY
“This is just Old Testament law”

YOU SAY
Jesus and the New Testament reaffirm the creation pattern — not a temporary civil code.
