Support for Israel rests on covenant, history, morality, and strategy — not sentimentality.

DEBATE PATH

- 1 Covenant: God's promises to Abraham and Israel are enduring (Gen 12; Rom 11:29).
- ↓
- 2 History/law: Continuous Jewish presence; modern Israel's legal founding and defensive wars.
- ↓
- 3 Morality: Israel is a democracy amid authoritarian neighbors — imperfect, but exceptional.
- ↓
- 4 Alliance: Shared values, intel/military cooperation, common threats (Iran, terror networks).
- ↓
- 5 Prophecy/hope: Restoration themes in Scripture align with Israel's improbable survival.

COUNTERS

THEY SAY

"Israel is a colonial project"

YOU SAY

Jews are indigenous to the land with continuous presence. Modern return followed legal mandates and defensive survival.

THEY SAY

"Occupation causes the conflict"

YOU SAY

Rejectionism predates 1967. Multiple land-for-peace offers were refused; terror remains the strategy.

THEY SAY

"Criticizing Israel isn't antisemitism"

YOU SAY

Fair critique exists. Demonization, double standards, and denying Jewish self-determination often are.

THEY SAY

"Christians should be neutral"

YOU SAY

Blessing Israel (Gen 12:3) and defending a free ally against jihadist enemies is moral clarity, not neutrality.
