

Strong National Security

OPENING FRAME → START HERE

Peace through strength: government's first duty is to protect the innocent from real enemies.

DEBATE PATH

- 1 Mandate: Romans 13 — the state bears the sword to restrain evil.
↓
- 2 Deterrence: Weakness invites aggression (China, Russia, Iran, NK, jihadist networks).
↓
- 3 Civilization: America uniquely underwrites liberty, trade, and religious freedom abroad.
↓
- 4 Preparedness: Superior military, intel, alliances, energy, and borders — not slogans.
↓
- 5 Ideology: Tyranny is a belief system. Soft power without hard power is begging.

COUNTERS

THEY SAY

"Military spending steals from the poor"

YOU SAY

Dead citizens can't be helped. Security enables prosperity — and America's aid. Both/and (Neh 4).

THEY SAY

"Focus only on domestic issues"

YOU SAY

False choice. 9/11 proved distant threats become local catastrophes. Prevention beats aftermath.

THEY SAY

"Diplomacy, not strength"

YOU SAY

Diplomacy without power is pleading. "Speak softly and carry a big stick."

THEY SAY

"Christians should be pacifists"

YOU SAY

Personal forgiveness ≠ national abdication. Just war tradition: defending the innocent can be righteous.
